THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

August 10th, 1752. [NUMB. 949.]

LONDON, April 18.

BY a Dutch ship arrived a few days ago in the Texel from the East Indies, there is advice, that the forces of the Dutch East India company, which had undertaken the siege of Bantam, (of which some mention was made a few months ago) having been repulsed before that town, the Indians, natives of the Island of Java, pursued them briskly to Batavia, and having received some reinforcements, began in their turn to besiege the Dutch, who repulsed them in two desperate sallies, but in the third were worsted, and forced to retire into the citadel of Batavia; whereupon the Indians poured into the city, destroyed all the spices in the company's warehouses, and carried off abundance of valuable effects. Many of the inhabitants of the town were massacred in this scene of confusion and devastation. At length the Dutch forces in the citadel, enraged to see the town thus plunder'd and the company's goods destroyed, made another furious sally, and drove away the Indians; but the damage done by them will be long felt. In this expedition the natives of Java were headed by an Indian Brasman, who escaped in the great massacre in that island about 30 or 20 Years ago, and has ever since been seeking and contriving to be avenged of the Dutch for their cruelties to his countrymen.

A letter from the Cape of Good Hope, adds further, that if the Prince of Bantam who has beat the Dutch forces several times and cut off their factory at Lampoo, a pepper settlement, and taken possession of the country, should join these revolters, mynheers will find it a difficult task to get rid of them. The enemy have destroyed all the sugar and coffee plantations, and every thing belonging to the Dutch within a league of the city. And as an addition to their misfortunes, their warehouses have been consumed by fire, which contained all their spices and piece goods intended for Europe this season.

April 21. We hear that two men of war will shortly sail for Newfoundland, and take on board the company of mattrosses going for St. John's in that island, and afterwards are to go in quest of an island, which expedition commodore Rodney lately arrived from but without success.

It is said that some persons of large fortunes and high reputation, are soliciting a charter for carrying on, or rather opening a new trade, to that large country, which is known by various names, but best by that of New-Britain, which cannot but be very beneficial in many respects, and particularly in breeding a race of active hardy and able seamen, capable when occasion shall require, (and who knows how soon that may be?) to maintain the glory of the British flag, and preserve that maritime empire Nature designed us.

May 2. Some letters from Vienna, intimate, that the Imperial Court has been for some time past in great agitation, which, it's said, was occasioned by some dispatches the Ministry received from the North. The Courts of Versailles and Berlin are likewise, we hear, in a great ferment, and hold extraordinary conferences, which, it's supposed, have been occasioned by intelligence receiv'd from the same quarter.

Yesterday Col. Hopton set out, in order to embark for Nova Scotia; being appointed Governor there, in the room of Col Cornwallis, who is coming to England.

London, May 5. By a Dutch ship arrived in the Texel from the Cape of Good-Hope, there is advice, that Commodore Lisle died there the 20th of last January; and that the five men of war, bound for England from India, were to sail a few days after.

Newport, Rhode-Island, May 15. Last mail brought dispatches of great consequence from Whitehall, to the Governor, &c. of this colony, in which are said to be an order of the King and Council, under the broad-seal, impowering and commanding the Lords of trade and plantations, to nominate and appoint all the Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, Counsellors, Secretaries and King's Attorneys, throughout the British colonies of America. — A copy of the order or writ of privy-council, was cover'd by a letter from their Lordships of trade, admonishing the authority here, to conduct themselves conformable to these resolutions or decrees of state ——

New York, June 1. By Capt. Lancraft from the Musquito Shore, we have intelligence, that about six weeks ago, Capt. Roome, in a fine large sloop of this port, bound from thence home, was taken by a Spanish privateer, (or pirate rather) about six leagues from that shore. They gave the boat to some of the people, who returned there again, and then carried the sloop off, supposed to Hispaniola.

Last tuesday arrived here in Capt. Mallom from South-Carolina, five of the Chiefs of the Catawba Indians, and on saturday they embarked in a sloop for Albany, where they are going to renew and confirm the peace agreed on with these Indians last summer.

Philadelphia, June 25. By Capt. Reeve, from Jamaica, there is advice, that a Spanish launch, with one white man and seventeen negroes, on board, is carried into Kingston, by the Commodore's Tender, which she attempted twice to take: It was said she had taken one Vessel, before she met with the Tender.

Philadelphia, July 9. Thursday last arrived here the Snow Batchelor, Capt. Wallace, from Newry. A few days before he made the land, he met with a vessel in great distress the commander's name Cornelius Campbell, bound to Liverpool, from Edenton, in North-Carolina: She sprung a leak three days after they sail'd, which oblig'd them to keep both pumps going night and day, and with much ado kept her above water 'till they luckily saw, and gave signals of distress to Captain Wallace, who took them on board, and brought them in here.
